

Indigenous Sports & Games

Which Sport Leisure's
For The society of Tomorrow ?

Inheritance, transmission and diffusion

Contents

- P.4 Presentation of the International Meeting
- P.9 Preface: Educational goals for the 21st century society through the inheritance, diffusion, and transmission of traditional games.
Guy Jaouen, Brittany, France
- P.13 An Holistic Analysis of the Educational Components of Traditional Games.
Sean Egan, Canada
- P.26 Highland Games, Ancient Sporting Traditions and Social Capital in Modern International Communities.
Grant Jarvie, Scotland, UK
- P. 39 The Destiny of Games, Heritage and Lineage
Pierre Parlebas, France
- P. 53 Traditional games and education. To learn to create bonds. To create bonds to learn.
Pere Lavega, Cataluña, Spain
- P.77 Illusion and Provocation In Traditional Sports. Finding the educational sense of traditional popular sports.
Gianfranco Staccioli, Italy
- P.89 Three dimensions of pull and tug; Towards a philosophy of popular games.
Henning Eichberg, Denmark
- P.113 Postface: Which Sporting Leisures, for which Society of Tomorrow?
Guy Jaouen
- P.128 Debate: Perspectives for Indigenous Sports and Games